

Words That Belong to the Same Word Family

This week, we are looking at spellings that belong to the same family of words.

Many words share the same origin or root word.

The word origin means where something came from or where it began.

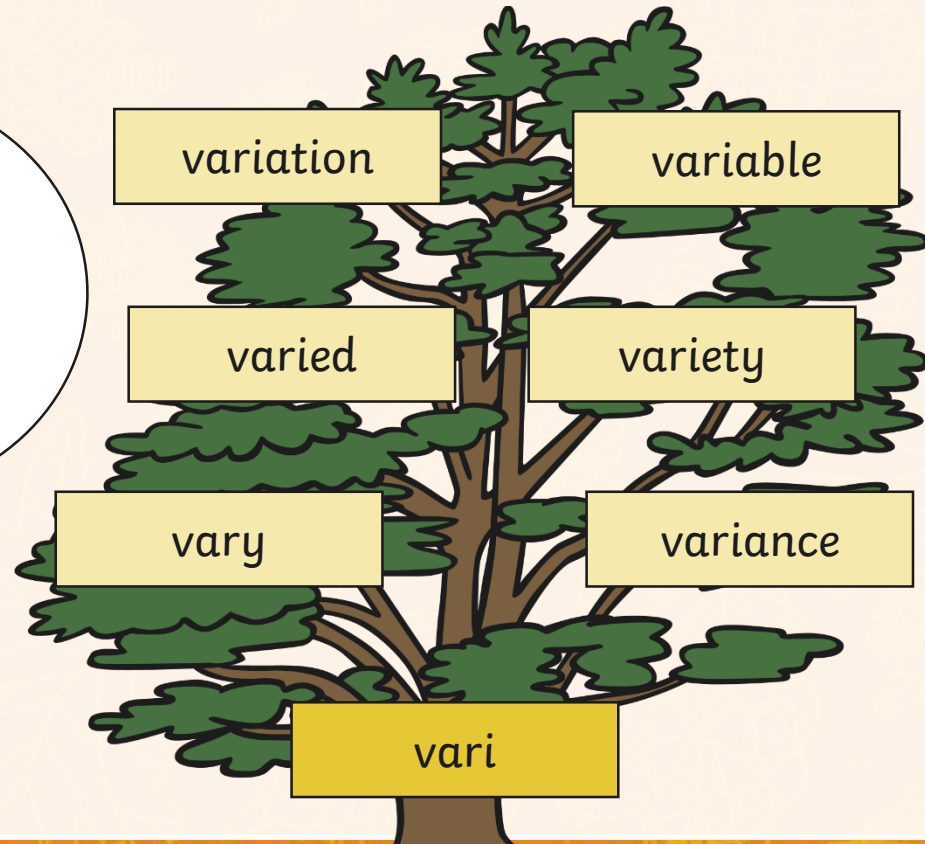

The root word 'vari' comes from an ancient language called Latin.

It is often used in words that have a meaning to do with difference or changing.

Working with a partner, can you think of any words that you think belong in this word family?

Do you know the meanings of all these words?

Use a dictionary to help you to define them.

Use the word it lands on to create a sensible sentence.

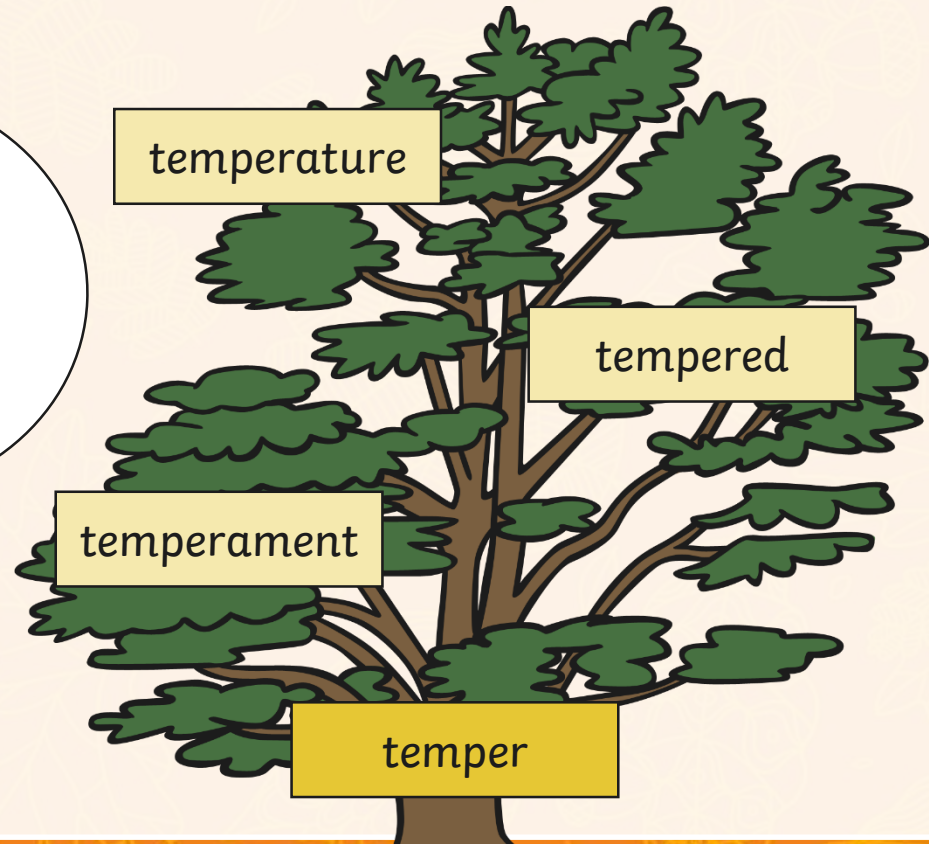

Click here to spin

The root word 'temper' also comes from the ancient language, Latin.

It is often used in words that have a meaning to do with regulating or modifying something.

Working with a partner, can you think of any words that you think belong in this word family?

Do you know the meanings of all these words?

Use a dictionary to help you to define them.

Use the word it lands on to create a sensible sentence.

Click here to spin

Here are your spelling words for this week.
Work hard to practise these word family spellings.

