

Homophones and Near Homophones

This week, we are going to look at more pairs of homophone words.

Remember, homophones are words that sound the same, but have different spellings and meanings.

Can you spot the pair of homophones in this sentence?

The cat took a pause from licking her paws to curl up on the beanbag for a snooze.

To work out your new spelling words, which are all pairs of homophones, I am going to give you some cryptic clues.

You will need to work with a partner to figure both words out!

For example a cryptic clue might be...

To look at the ocean?

see

sea

To work out your new spelling words, which are all pairs of homophones, I am going to give you some cryptic clues.

You will need to work with a partner to figure both words out!

To travel a greater distance
than your Dad?

farther

father

To work out your new spelling words, which are all pairs of homophones, I am going to give you some cryptic clues.

You will need to work with a partner to figure both words out!

To have controlled some metal into position?

lead

led

To work out your new spelling words, which are all pairs of homophones, I am going to give you some cryptic clues.

You will need to work with a partner to figure both words out!

To have solved a puzzle while staying at a friend's house?

guessed

guest

To work out your new spelling words, which are all pairs of homophones, I am going to give you some cryptic clues.

You will need to work with a partner to figure both words out!

To grieve for a lost loved one at sunrise?

morning

mourning

Here are your spelling words for this week.

Week 6

Homophones &
Near Homophones

farther

father

guessed

guest

heard

herd

led

lead

mourning

morning

twinkl.co.uk

Here are your spelling words for this week.
Work hard to practise these pairs of homophones.

twinkl