

Tuesday 10th November

L.O. I can use prepositional phrases in my writing.

This week we will be looking at prepositional phrases and using them at the beginning of our sentences.

A preposition is a word that indicates time, place or cause.

A prepositional phrase usually includes a preposition, a noun or pronoun and may include an adjective. It does not include the verb!

For example;

- ★ Across the floor
- ★ Under the bed
- ★ Beside the door
- ★ On top of the table

A prepositional phrase is used at the beginning of a sentence or at the end but it includes a preposition, noun and an object.

Where is the pupil standing?

Where is the bird flying?

Where did the man walk?

Can you use the following cards to think of sentences with prepositional phrases in?

due to

inside

in front of

Can you organise which ones are prepositional phrases and which ones are prepositions?

Prepositional Phrase

Preposition

adjacent to since into

in the box

across underneath the bed

up the hill

beside the bench

Underline all the prepositional phrases in the sentences below.

1. The boy kicked his ball in the park and it rolled across the grass.

2. Due to the traffic, we were late to school.

3. In the fridge, the milk was leant against the orange juice.

4. On top of the table, the cat was chasing its tail.

Fill in the prepositional phrases in the sentences below.

1. The cup rolled _____

2. I have been late every day since _____

3. I will be going to my friends house _____

4. _____, we always go to McDonalds.

underneath the table.

since my alarm stopped working.

at the weekend.

After football

Below is a description of a messy bedroom. Underline all the prepositional phrases in the text. There are ten altogether!

Daniel's bedroom was a terrible mess! It looked like a tornado had passed across his room and turned everything upside-down! Across the floor, toys were scattered and Daniel's favourite superhero toy had been thrown under the bed. A pile of old magazines were precariously stacked behind the bedroom door, waiting to be knocked over. By his bed, a small table stood, covered in empty sweet wrappers and an old drink carton. Feeling horrified, Daniel's mum hadn't entered the room for several days due to the mess. Behind the wardrobe doors, piles of unfolded and dirty clothes lay screwed up waiting to be sorted. 'I want this bedroom cleaned by tomorrow,' demanded his mum. Daniel walked into his room and lay on his bed.

'I'll do it first thing in the morning,' he thought to himself as he shoved another dirty sock beneath his pillow.

TASK: Complete the worksheet.

Extension:

Can you write a few sentences including prepositional phrases about a room in your house?