Homework Activities

English Have you been inspired by our world leaders at COP26? Why not use your voice to share your thoughts? Either in a letter, a PowerPoint or even record an informative presentation about your thoughts on climate change and recent events in the news.	PE This half-term we will be working on our hockey and floor gymnastics skills. Due to gymnasts having such great body strength. We would like to set you the 50-rep challenge. This is where you will complete 50 reps of the exercises below: Squats, press ups, sit ups and burpees Fancy an extra push? Why don't you try compete 100 per week for the whole 7 weeks?	Science Why not create your own power point on the lifecycle of an animal such as a turtle or whatever you choose? Make it eye-catching and engaging. Or, you could make your own life cycle wheel for an animal of your choice. See the link below for examples: https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/t-t-19915-make-your-own-life-cycle-of-a-frog-spin-wheel
RE What's your mission in life? Over this half-term we will be exploring the idea of 'What would Jesus do?' (WWJD). Jesus had a clear mission, whether you believe in Christianity or not, which most of us understand clearly 2000 years on. Your task is to decide on what you would like to be known and remembered for, and how you might spread that message. You can present your ideas in anyway you like, maybe a video in the style of an advert! A mind-map! A writing reflection!	DT Have you been inspired by our food lessons this term? Why not use everything we have discussed to make your own nutritious, health soup? Pumpkin soup is always popular at this time of year, or perhaps a tasty vegetable soup is something you would like to try. Be creative! Remember to always ask a grown up to support you in any activity in the kitchen!	Well-being The theme for anti-bullying week this year is all about using kind words. Think about how you can show your friends and family how much you care by Carrying out an act of kindness, either from the list, or one of your own. Design a poster to spread the message of using kind words to make people feel happy.

Weekly homework

Children will receive weekly spellings which they need to learn ready for their spelling test in school on a Friday. Additional maths and English tasks for UKS2 will be set to support lessons and revision in school.
