

Lesson 1

L.O. I can compare religious and non-religious celebrations and determine why people choose to celebrate.

What is going on in this picture?

Is this a religious celebration? Do you have a religion to celebrate your birthday?

What things / traditions do we do when celebrating birthdays?

What is going on in this picture?

Is this a religious celebration? Do you know what religion celebrates this?

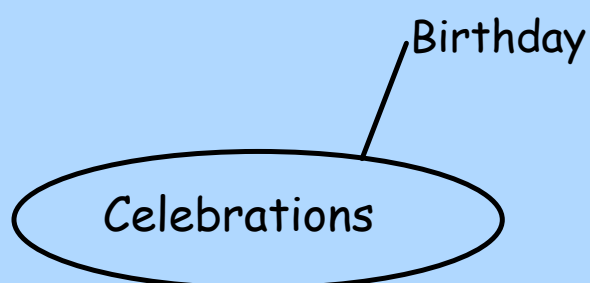

What is going on in this photo?

Is it a religious celebration?

Why are so many people celebrating?

What do you like to celebrate (religious or non-religious)?

Imagine! The government has decided school's can have one extra day off a year to celebrate something. What do you think we should celebrate on that day?

Community?

Equal Rights?

Celebrating
Difference?

Name the celebrations:

Which of the celebrations are religious and not?

4th of July

Remembrance

Christmas

Eid

Diwali

Passover

New Years Eve

Sort them into your table.

When you have finished, add some more of your own!

Eid

Watch the video and discuss the questions.

What do Muslims do to celebrate Eid?

Do they remember a story?

Do they raise money?

Is Eid celebrated by everyone or just Muslims?

Do people exchange gifts?

Does Eid remind Muslims of their beliefs?

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/z434wmn#:~:text=A%20Muslim%20family%20explains%20that,and%20drinking%20during%20the%20day.&text=Pupils%20could%20then%20make%20their,pictures%20related%20to%20this%20time.>

Remembrance Day

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/school-radio/assemblies-ks1-ks2-remembrance-day-remembrance-sunday/znkxjsg>

Watch the video and discuss the questions.

What do people do to celebrate Remembrance?
Do they remember a story?
Do they raise money?
Is Remembrance celebrated by everyone or just certain people?
Do people exchange gifts?
Does Remembrance remind people of religious beliefs?

